Telling It In Pictures!

That's what the New York American is doing every day in its new Picture Section—THE AMERICAN PICTORIAL!

Whatever it is and wherever it is you will find it in pictures in the daily American Pictorial Section of the daily New York American!

The American main sheet is a complete newspaper in itself with all the important local, foreign, financial, society, theatrical, political and sporting news.

TWO Papers for ONE Price!

In addition to the main sheet, you get the Pictorial. It is a sixteen-page newspaper in itself. It tells the news of the day in pictures. There are dozens and dozens of pictures.

The American Pictorial also contains gripping human interest news articles. It has a new illustrated novel by Hall Caine, and other appealing serial fiction stories.

The Pictorial has, in addition, two full pages of comics by the world's greatest comic artists, Paris fashions by Marie Suzanne, health articles by Health Commissioner Copeland, two great prize contests with prizes totaling $27,700, and a score of other features.

Famous Westchester Country Clubhouse in Ruins

OLD CLUB IN RUINS—All that is left of the Westchester Country Club which was burned yesterday. Fashionable women formed a bucket line and passed water to club members who tried ineffectually to put out the flames. Help summoned from nearby points failed to save the old building. The clubhouse was one of the oldest in the country. (N. Y. American Staff Photo.)

HER CASE CONTINUED—Muriel Spring, film actress, appeared in court yesterday charged with smuggling $3,000 worth of clothing and gems into the U. S. Illness of a witness caused a delay. Miss Spring says the goods were presents, and, she thought, not dutiable.

FIVE CENT LOAF OF BREAD RETURNS—After an absence of four years, the old-time nickel loaf yesterday made its appearance at grocery stores. Mother's messenger is shown greeting this old friend in a grocery at No. 256 William street. (Pictorial Staff Photo.)
